One State, One Uniform policy in Maharashtra from next year

In News: The 'One State, One Uniform' policy will be implemented in all government schools in Maharashtra from the academic year 2024-25.

Key Points:

- The standardized uniforms for class 1 to 8 could not take off this academic year as many schools were ready with their own uniforms when they reopened in June.
- The state's identical attire will be on the lines of a scout and guide uniform.
- Students will get two sets of uniforms.
- One of the two uniforms will have shoulder strips and double pockets.
