Read the given passage and answer the question that follows:

In today's fast-paced world, stress has become an unavoidable part of life. However, there is a powerful tool that can help combat stress and promote overall well-being: meditation. Meditation is a practice that involves focusing the mind on a particular object, thought, or activity to train attention and awareness. It has been used for centuries in various cultures and is now gaining popularity in the modern world. Meditation offers numerous benefits, including reduced stress levels. By calming the mind and promoting relaxation, it can lower cortisol levels, which are associated with stress. Additionally, meditation can improve concentration, increase self-awareness, and enhance emotional well-being. Furthermore, it's a versatile practice that can be tailored to suit individual preferences and needs. Whether you prefer mindfulness meditation, loving-kindness meditation, or transcendental meditation, there's a style that can work for you.

What is the primary purpose of this article?

Options :

1. ✖ To report recent scientific findings on meditation
2. ✔ To provide a balanced overview of the benefits of meditation
3. ✖ To persuade readers to start meditating immediately
4. ✖ To criticize the practice of meditation
